User Manual:

This document gives a walkthrough of the application. The authentication part of application is still under development. Login with the predefined data –
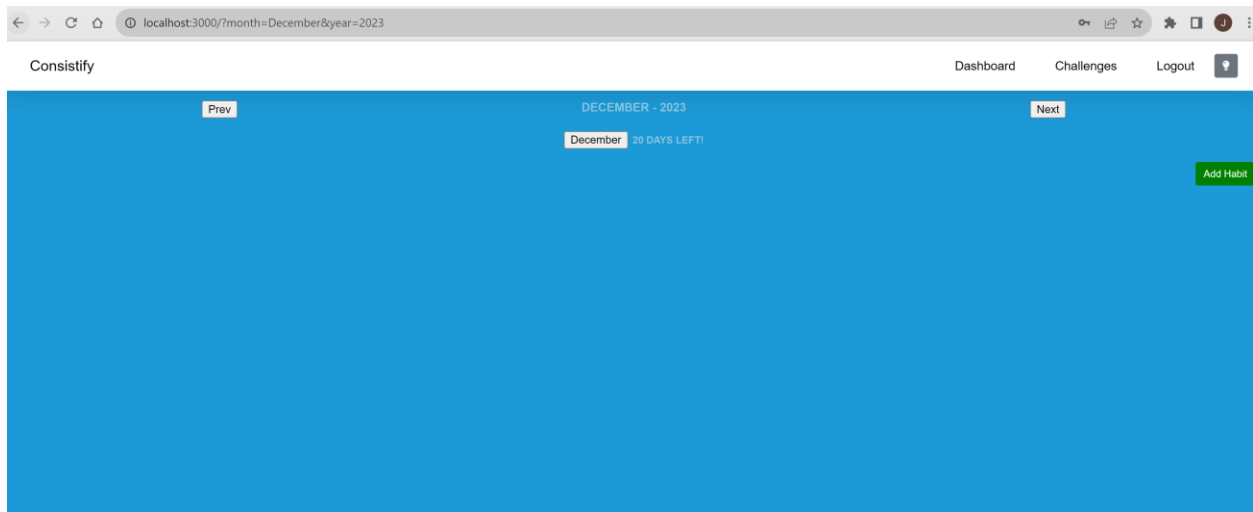

Username – test and password test

Login Page:

There are two collections – Users and Habits. The backend uses mongodb as database.

After successfully signing in ,the dashboard page appears.

Dashboard:

Add Challenge:

After Creating the new habit, the dashboard page is updated with tiles to display. You can select and unselect based on the consistency of completing the activity.
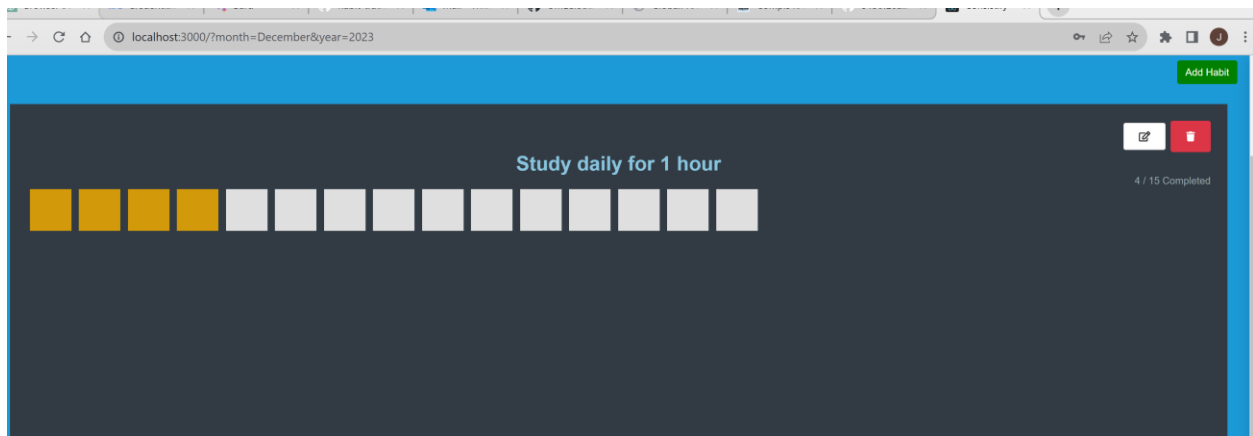

This is the updated dashboard now . You can create new habits and track progress.

Edit Habit:

Delete Habit:

Click the red button to delete the habit

Enhancements :

Authentication using Google / Facebook , Better UI and the challenges page improvements .